MSNBC - The Rachel Maddow Show | Missouri smelter gains attention from conspiracy theorists - 10/30/13 - Ordinarily, the demise of a Missouri smelter wouldn’t be a political story worth noting, but the right’s reaction to the Doe Run Co. closing its doors is kind of amazing. <http://www.msnbc.com/rachel-maddow-show/smelter-center-new-conspiracy-theory>

The Firearms Blog - Last Remaining Lead Smelter In The USA Closing After 120 Years - 10/20/13 - The last remaining lead smelter, in Herculaneum MO, is closing down. This will undoubtedly affect the price of lead, since the lead that is mined in Viburnum MO will now be sent out of the US for smelting. <http://www.thefirearmblog.com/blog/2013/10/20/remaining-lead-smelter-usa-closing/>

Right Wing News - Back Door Gun Control Moves Forward – 10/30/13 - There are numerous alarming reasons why the US government and the military have been buying up all the ammo. Here’s one of them. Obama and the EPA just shut down the last lead smelting plant in the US. <http://www.rightwingnews.com/environment/back-door-gun-control-moves-forward/>

Before It’s News - Backdoor Gun Grab – EPA Forces Closure Of Last Lead Smelter In U.S. - 10/30/13 - The Left badly wants American citizens disarmed and denied their Second Amendment rights, and they’ll achieve that by any means necessary...including using Obama Environmental Protection Agency to severely impact the price of ammo. <http://beforeitsnews.com/opinion-conservative/2013/10/backdoor-gun-grab-epa-forces-closure-of-last-lead-smelter-in-u-s-2743466.html>

St. Louis Post-Dispatch - Column: Investors: Carbon standards can be catalyst for economic growth - 10/30/13 - Investors reacted strongly when the Environmental Protection Agency released carbon pollution standards for future power plants on Sept. 20, but not how one might typically expect. http://www.stltoday.com/news/opinion/columns/investors-carbon-standards-can-be-catalyst-for-economic-growth/article_52b5a004-b6ac-5080-a0f3-f294d4dfa612.html

Des Moines Register (blog) - Researchers say urban wetlands can improve water quality - 10/30/13 - Researchers looking at urban wetlands said cities and towns — even homeowners — can use them to capture nutrients that can degrade nearby rivers, lakes and streams, slow flood waters, and provide important habitat for wildlife. <http://blogs.desmoinesregister.com/dmr/index.php/2013/10/30/researchers-say-urban-wetlands-can-improve-water-quality>
